➤ Admission Drive by Govt. Degree College, Pakala

The teaching staff of Government Degree College, Pakala actively participated in an admission drive across various villages to increase student enrollment and strengthen the college's academic community. Faculty members visited local communities, interacted with students and parents, and explained the benefits of higher education, available courses, scholarships, and career opportunities offered by the college. Through awareness campaigns, counseling sessions, and distribution of admission brochures, the staff motivated eligible students to pursue degree education. The initiative helped create awareness about the institution and encouraged more students from rural areas to seek admission, contributing to the growth of the college's student strength.
